

DINNER RESERVATION AND PAYMENT FORM

The Chicago Map Society will celebrate its Fiftieth Anniversary with a gala dinner at the Greek Islands, 200 South Halsted, Chicago, on Thursday October 29th. Distinguished historian of cartography, Matthew Edney, will speak about the legacy of David Woodward, the first director of the Newberry Library's Smith Center for the History of Cartography, and his role in establishing the society in 1976.

The cost will be $55.00 per person for a four-course family style dinner featuring Greek specialties and inclusive of coffee, tea, all taxes and gratuities. Alcohol will be available for purchase at dinner. The restaurant offers free valet parking.

NAME

PHONE

EMAIL

GUEST(S)

DINNER COST

$55 Per Person

ADDITIONAL DONATION

MAIL FORM AND CHECK TO:

CHICAGO MAP SOCIETY

P.O. Box 10115

CHICAGO, IL 60610-9998